(ENGLISH)

Just quick note to update you with the MIconwy situation and our work in Abergele. Our Coastal Area Officer Siwan, has left us to go to do a Teaching Course. We have appointed a new member of staff and hope to re-commence the work in a month or so.

HelloBlod Officer Nia Morris has also left us on maternity leave. The Denbighshire Officer, Ffion Whitham is ready to stand in to help with the work that Nia hoped to complete, namely a presentation to the Board of Trade and going around Abergele businesses with "HelloBlod" recorcess. I would be grateful if Nevil and Delyth could contact her to arrange convenient dates. This is Ffion's e-mail I have copied into this message; ffion.whitham@heloblodlleol.cymru

In the meantime we have held 2 very successful "Fun Days" for Children in Abergele ( 5th and 7th of August at Ysgol Glan Morfa) and hope to have a third one on the 27th of September. We want to consult with parents to see what kind of activity I would like to see in the area. We will proceed with a wider programme once the new Officer has started their work. Please contact me if you have any further questions.

Yn gywir
